川

Awakening mind…
That which is conscious…
For the good of sentience.

— Yoso

Thank you, Japan

I ventured on the Soul's Journey,
You offered me a home, a refuge, a family.
You offered me a rebirth.

Ever Grateful,
It is my turn to express your beauty to the world.

May we together celebrate endless summers.

with love

— Yoso

To Yuko

Thank you for always being by my side.
With you, my heart flows like a calm river.

BEFORE REACHING THE SHORE

Before reaching the shore,
in the quiet sea of abstraction;
seize the mind.

SUBMISSIVENESS

Submissiveness,
alien to the shining soul,
breathing union is.

PRESENT, MINDFUL NOW

Present, mindful now.
Peaceful heart, a quiet mind.
Harmony's embrace.

TO EACH CELL

Hands in prayer,
I bow respectfully to each cell in my body,
and to the life in you.

WIND'S NATURAL SOUL

Wind's natural soul…
Leading me into the unknown…
Transcendental flow.

First love, then form.

To feel with opened eyes,
to listen with the heart,
to speak with truth.

Spring Energy,
Blessing our hearts with auspicious light.
Each blossom, a vow of harmony.
With gratitude, I honour your transience.

BREATHE IN

Breathe in…

Breathe out…

The energy that connects all forms…

Infinite chains of chemical reactions…

Trillions of cells living within…

What am I?

Kind loving love,
Kind loving love,
Kind loving love.

WITH EACH BLOSSOM

With each blossom,
I vow to dedicate myself to prosperity and harmony for sentient life.

Heal yourself to heal others,
heal others to heal yourself.

I SURRENDER TO THE FLOW

I surrender to the flow…
Reaching the depths of my heart…
Union's Embrace.

There is no greater shock in life than birth,
unable to survive alone,
we invest in independence.

Life itself is the knowledge!
Eternal wisdom,
if only we listened.

LIFE ITSELF IS DEATH ITSELF

Existence itself…

resides with death…

There is no presence without breath.

Scanning for knowledge,
seeking distractions,
fearing our instincts.

Becoming One.

Being One.

Always One.

Do not love Love,
be love,
love.

THE SPRING AWAKES

The spring awakens,
golden heart,
pure Consciousness.

Your mind is your home.
Bring it light,
bring it air,
bring it love,
bring it you.

Finally, a voice.
All is Light,
To those who awake.

Do not judge your experiences,
union of presence, past and future;
All there is is now.

END OF SUMMER FULL MOON

End of summer full moon,
bright in the East…
I could feel the cold morning wind rise…

There is a time in the day,
when the sun watches the moon;
What is the time?

Before knowledge, integrity,
Before judgement,
Awakening.

I DEDICATE MY BREATH

I dedicate my breath
to harmony.

The light reveals the shadows of the ego.

Y O S O

I dedicate each breath and my artistic practice to the cultivation of mind and conscience.
It is a vision and a dream to create a refuge where others can be reborn.

Wishing you light and prosperity.
